

Bill Gade is running for council in the Municipality of Swan Valley West.

Below are some quotes from his editorials on CJSB/CJ104 (part of the CJ Radio Group). The quotes provide insight into his position on the people of the Swan Valley.

Bill Gade on Our Youth

“Taylor school is an early years school so if you ask 4 random kids what they are looking forward to at the pool, don't expect answers formed in sentences.” May 9, 2014

“So if you are a girl and you go swimming, you will be getting naked in the CJ104 change room. I hear there might be counselling available after for that.” May 9, 2014

“Brand new traffic lights are being installed this week at the high school corner to keep the kids, who are otherwise too stupid to safely cross the street, alive.” December 12, 2014

Bill Gade on Our Seniors

“Take heart, the old man who could barely get it up, I mean his garbage can into the dumpster, is in the small minority. Each week in the post office the wall shows that small minority is getting smaller.” August 15, 2014

Bill Gade on Serving Ratepayers

“Let me explain something about politics that the locals seem to have missed. It's a game, a big game.” August 15, 2014

Bill Gade on His Own Mind

“It's an editorial, not a rant. Only small minded people would see it as a rant.” June 13, 2014

“Here, then is what I cut out to make room for the rant about Debbie.” January 23, 2015
